

1. Identify Slow and Advanced Learners

The School of Law has a clear, equitable, and open admissions policy that it uses to admit students with a variety of backgrounds. The following approach for identifying slow and advanced learners has been implemented in order to meet the needs of this diverse student body and maintain the highest academic standards.

➤ Performance in the Continuous Internal Assessment.

- Class Test
- Assignment & Tutorial
- Attendance
- Ability to Answer the Questions in the Class
- General Awareness
- Attentiveness
- Class Committee meetings to identify different levels of learners.
- Class observations by the Subject Teachers.

➤ Based on the above assessed parameters students are classified into groups:

- I. Slow Learners
- II. Advanced Learners.

The departmental measures implemented to help both advanced and slow learners achieve a perfect balance between extracurricular and academic activities and academics, which will help them succeed in their respective professional careers and improve their employability attributes, are listed below.
