77th Independence Day

Dated: 15th August, 2023

Rai University marked the auspicious occasion of the 77th Independence Day with a jubilant and meaningful celebration, reverberated with both patriotic zeal and cultural grandeur. The event commenced on a solemn note with a dignified flag hoisting ceremony led by the esteemed Provost, Prof. Dr. Anil Tomar. The unfurling of the tricolor flag served as a poignant reminder of the immeasurable sacrifices made by India's valiant freedom fighters in their unwavering pursuit of liberty.

The commemorative affair blossomed into a captivating showcase of artistic prowess by the university's vibrant student body. A spellbinding Mime performance took center stage, masterfully reenacting pivotal junctures from India's storied history. Through their meticulously choreographed movements, the students skillfully evoked the trials, triumphs, and pivotal milestones that have intricately woven the fabric of the nation's collective identity.

Celebrating the nation's rich tapestry of diversity and unity, the festivities continued with exuberant folk dances. These enchanting performances transported the audience on a cultural odyssey across the various regions of India, where the rhythmic footwork and resplendent costumes painted a vivid tableau of the country's cultural heritage.

The artistic panorama expanded as talented students graced the stage with emotive solo and group vocal performances. The melodies that resonated through the air were not only infused with patriotic fervor but also harmoniously encapsulated the coexistence of diverse musical traditions within India.

A moment of global solidarity took center stage as Ms. Natasha, an international student, eloquently shed light on the intricate relationship between Africa and India. Her insightful discourse underscored the shared historical experiences and emphasized the immense potential for future collaboration between the two regions.

In culmination, Rai University's 77th Independence Day celebration emerged as an eloquent tapestry interwoven with patriotic pride and a celebration of cultural diversity. The amalgamation of performances and speeches eloquently demonstrated the university's unwavering dedication to nurturing holistic individuals who are not only academically astute but also deeply ingrained in their cultural heritage and globally conscious.

As the event ended, a lively Garba Dance unfurled, uniting students and faculty members in a jubilant display of camaraderie. This spirited conclusion encapsulated the essence of the entire celebration—a harmonious blend of cultural richness and shared joy that echoed the university's commitment to fostering a vibrant and inclusive community. The memories forged on this momentous day will undoubtedly serve as a wellspring of inspiration for all, spurring them to continue upholding the nation's growth, prosperity, and unity.

Pre-Janmashatmi Celebration @ RU

Dated-6th September 2023

The Reet Club of Rai University brought the essence of Janmashtami alive with a vibrant celebration that included traditional activities like Dahi Handi, Garba dance, and the added flair of participants donning Gopi and Gwala outfits. The event was a joyful amalgamation of culture and devotion.

The day began with the Dahi Handi competition, where teams enthusiastically formed human pyramids to break the suspended pot of yogurt. This symbolic act paid homage to Lord Krishna's mischievous nature as a child. The spirited participants, dressed in colorful Gopi and Gwala attire, added an authentic touch to the celebration.

After the Dahi Handi ritual, the campus reverberated with the rhythmic beats of the dhol as students, faculty, and staff engaged in Garba dance. Draped in traditional outfits, they swirled and twirled, showcasing their enthusiasm for the festival.

The Reet Club's Janmashtami celebration not only honored Lord Krishna's birth but also celebrated the rich tapestry of Indian culture. It was a day of cultural immersion, unity, and festivity that left lasting memories for all who participated.

Ganesh Chaturthi

Dated;-19th September to 23rd September 2023

Ganesh Chaturthi, the festival celebrating the birth of Lord Ganesha, was observed at Rai University with great devotion and enthusiasm. The entire university community, including students and staff, came together to participate in various rituals and festivities during this auspicious occasion.

Puja Initiation by Provost Sir

The celebration began with a ceremonial puja that was initiated by our respected Provost Sir. This marked the commencement of a spiritually significant day. The puja was conducted with traditional rituals, including the lighting of the lamp, Vedic chants, and offerings to Lord Ganesha's idol. Provost Sir's presence added a sense of solemnity and reverence to the event.

Anjali and Prasad

After the puja, all students and staff members gathered to perform the 'Anjali' ritual. With folded hands and heartfelt prayers, they offered their respects and sought the blessings of Lord Ganesha. This moment of devotion allowed everyone to connect with the essence of the festival.

Following the 'Anjali' ritual, 'Prasad' was distributed to all present. Sweets and fruits were shared among the attendees, symbolizing the blessings and benevolence of Lord Ganesha. This act of sharing fostered unity and a sense of community.

Stay of Lord Ganesha's Idol

Lord Ganesha's idol graced our campus for a five-day stay, which allowed students and staff to continue seeking His blessings. Every morning at 9:30 AM, an 'Anjali' ceremony was conducted, where members of the university community came together to pay their respects and offer prayers to the deity.

Bisarjan (Immersion) Ceremony

The culmination of the Ganesh Chaturthi celebration was the 'Bisarjan' or immersion ceremony, which took place on September 23rd. This ritual symbolized the return of Lord Ganesha to His celestial abode. The entire university community participated in the procession, joyfully dancing and singing hymns to bid farewell to the deity.

Festivities During Bisarjan

The 'Bisarjan' day was marked with vibrant celebrations. Students and staff members enjoyed dancing, singing devotional songs, and participating in cultural performances. The atmosphere was filled with joy, unity, and a sense of togetherness.

On the day of 'Bisarjan,' a communal meal was organized for all students and staff members. This meal provided an opportunity for everyone to bond, share stories, and strengthen the sense of belonging within the university community.

The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration at Rai University was a beautiful expression of devotion, culture, and unity. It allowed students and staff to come together, celebrate, and seek the blessings of Lord Ganesha.

The five-day stay of the deity, daily 'Anjali' ceremonies, the grand 'Bisarjan' procession, and the communal meal all contributed to making this celebration a memorable and spiritually enriching event.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all the students, staff, and organizers whose dedication and participation made this celebration a grand success. May the blessings of Lord Ganesha continue to guide us, and may our university community always remain close-knit and harmonious.

Rai University, Ahmedabad celebrated Children's day on the 14th November, 2022, with great festive fervor, to commemorate the 129th birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. The programme began with a special assembly conducted by the Faculties, followed by informative and inspirational speeches by Honorable Provost, Mr. Anil Tomar sir about the great leader, thinker, visionary and a true statesman – Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. The first Prime Minister of independent India was extremely fond of children and the programme clearly depicted the spirit of the occasion with teachers holding the stage and putting up a mesmerizing cultural show for the children. Through a speech rich tributes were paid to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who is known for his relentless efforts in increasing awareness of the rights, care and education of children. The following cultural programme had a series of interesting and exciting events, all planned meticulously for complete entertainment. Students pulsated with excitement when their classmates presented dances bringing together their poetry of footsteps. Subsequently, a song was presented by a group of students in praise of Chacha Nehru who led the country into a new and glorious future. Students were elated to see the performance and celebrate the day with zeal and enthusiasm. The Provost, Mr. Anil Tomar sir Massey greeted the Students warmly on the special day. He compared the children to beautiful blossoms and motivated them to spread their fragrance everywhere. He also reminded the students of the extraordinary sacrifices made by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and asked the students to keep him as an idol in all their endeavors. Children's Day was marked with grand splendor and fiesta as the university campus buzzed with excitement and joy as it was a day wherein fun and frolic dominated. The Students came dressed in casual dresses and relished their favorite food with classmates. Various activities were organized for the children of all classes such as art competitions and a cricket match between the students. Students greatly enjoyed playing and winning against their mentors. It was a day full of joy and laughter for the students.

Pre-Christmas Celebration

Dated:-22nd December 2022

Christmas is the tenderness of the past, courage for the present, and hope for the future. A little smile a word of cheer, a bit of love from someone near, a little gift from one held dear, and best wishes for the coming year.

The Reet Club of Rai University organized Pre Christmas celebration. It was a delightful afternoon. The program started with a prayer. Then there were a few interesting and mind-boggling games that made the crowd get into the festive fervor and enjoy themselves. After some interesting games a couple of rocking dances set the stage on fire. Some people also showed their excitement for welcoming the New Year by impromptu singing. The spirit of Christmas is particularly unique for its giving nature. The main aim of Christmas is not only the celebration but also to spread cheer among people. It means to enjoy and help others by caring and sharing with lots of love. Students bought a gift a Secret Santa.

The celebration was really very rejuvenating for all the students and faculty.

Kite Festival

Dated:-13th January 2023

Makar Sankranti is a festival that heralds a change of season marking the movement of the sun into the northern hemisphere - a celebration to mark the end of winter. The skies are blue and clear, a cool breeze blows and a feeling of anticipation, joy and jubilation grips all who celebrate the occasion. Kites of different colors and shapes soared high and took to the clear blue skies in the backdrop.

The Reet Club of Rai University organized the kite festival. This festival was organized under the cultural committee head along with Coordinators and HODs. The festival was organized on 13/01/2023 between 12:15 to 3:15 PM. All the students took part in this kite festival. The major objective behind organizing this event was to make our students realize that along with studying, other extracurricular activities were also important and bring happiness. All the students were gathered. The kites were provided by the university and firakis were brought by the students. Students and faculties including HODs flew the kites. All the students participated and enjoyed the afternoon. Students and faculties made memories together of this wonderful event.

Mismatch Day

Dated: 15th February, 2023

The Reet Club of Rai University organized a celebration called "Mismatch Day". The Event was organized as part of the initiative to celebrate G20 Presidency Year. The event included activities beyond just the mismatched clothing aspect, such as games, performances, and singing. These types of activities can foster a sense of community and provide a fun, interactive experience for everyone involved.

It's important to keep in mind that while encouraging creativity and self-expression is valuable, it's also important to ensure that everyone feels included and comfortable. Activities that require expensive clothing or other resources can create an environment where some students feel left out or excluded. It's important to be mindful of these potential barriers and make sure that everyone has an opportunity to participate in the event on equal footing.

Overall, it's great to see events that encourage students to come out of their comfort zones and try new things. By balancing creativity with consideration for others and practicality, we can create events that are fun and inclusive for everyone.
